Advice

We advise students and graduates on all questions relating to applications and career entry. We also offer personal coaching and an application portfolio check. To increase your chances in the job interview, there is also the possibility to simulate a job interview.

If you would like to make a personal consultation appointment with us, please send us an e-mail to careerservice[at]thws.de.

A personal consultation appointment can take place in person at both locations, but online counselling is also possible. Feel free to provide some information when requesting an appointment: What is your specific concern, what questions do you have and what do you hope to get out of a conversation. If you are interested in an application portfolio check, you are welcome to send your documents (cover letter, CV, cover page, if applicable, specific job advertisement).

Do you just need a short advice, do you have a specific question or do you want to find out first whether one of our consultations is the right offer for you? Then feel free to come by our open office hours without registration.

Tips on job search and applications

On the Employment Agency's website on further education and careers (https://www.arbeitsagentur.de/weiterbildung-karriere) you will find a lot of information on the topics of job search and further education, but also online application training. Of course, you can also make a personal consultation appointment with the Employment Agency.

You can search for jobs online on the following pages, among others:

- THWS university job exchange (http://jobboerse.thws.de/)
- Online job portal of the Employment Agency (https://con.arbeitsagentur.de/prod/jobboerse/jobsuche-ui/)

In addition, there are of course many other well-known platforms that are suitable for job searches. On our e-learning pages you will find a small collection.

Of course, there is also the possibility of passive job search, e.g. with your own profile in job portals and professional networks.

Also uses company and career fairs to get in touch with companies directly and personally. Since 2020, THWS has been participating in the study&stay job fair (/kooperationen-und-karriere/studystay-karrieremessen/), which takes place annually in Würzburg in October. With the study&stay career day, there has also been a format for Schweinfurt since 2023.

In our e-learning you will also find tips on how to create application documents (/fileadmin/redaktion/dokumente/Career_Service/Leitfaden_Erstellen_der_Bewerbungsunterlagen.pdf).

Students and alumni who are interested in a doctorate - i.e. considering whether they want to do a doctorate - can find further information and contact points for advice on the website for young researchers (https://www.thws.de/forschung/caf-campus-angewandte-forschung/wissenschaftlicher-nachwuchs/).

Continuing education for professionals and experienced professionals

For working people and experienced professionals, the THWS offers a comprehensive continuing education programme through the Campus Weiterbildung (https://www.thws.de/weiterbildung/). With these offers, there is the opportunity to continue one's education while studying or working, in a practical way and at an academic level.
