Contact Persons at THWS

During your studies, you will encounter questions or issues that need to be solved. We at THWS offer several counselling options.

General support

In the following section, you can find contact persons who can help you with information about the life at THWS and in Germany. They can also help you if you are not clear who the correct contact person for your question is.

When you have a question, please take into account the logical order of your contact persons. If you have a question, please contact your Buddy first. If they do not know the answer or if you do not have a Buddy, please contact one of the GAT tutors, and so on.

Buddy Programme

Some faculties offer Buddy Programmes for their first semester students.

Buddies/tutors are students who help international students:

- They pick students up from the train station
- They show them around town, at THWS, faculties, studies, etc.
- They plan free-time activities to help international students with getting to know the place and meeting new people

If you study International Management, and you are looking for a Buddy, please send an email to: welcome[at]thws.de

GAT tutorials

During the General Academic Tutorial (GAT), tutors will introduce you to topics concerning life and studies at THWS. Those information will help you to find your way around THWS quicker and make your start in Germany easier.

All students who take part can enjoy a free cup of coffee with every tutorial. No signup required.

1. Talk time: 90 minutes, once a week
2. Time and place: will be announced here at the beginning of the semester

3. Topics: General introduction to studies, contact persons at THWS, exam preparation, exam deadlines, signup, language courses, free-time, etc.
