Chip card

Upon commencing your enrollment, you received a student ID card from your university .

This personalized ID card is equipped with a multifunctional chip card and combines various service functions:

- Student ID
- Library card
- Student ticket card for Würzburg, Bamberg and Schweinfurt
- Access controls
- cashless payment (using an electronic wallet on the chip)

The contactless electronic wallet is operated by the Würzburg Student Union and can be used as follows:

- in all catering facilities of the student union
- at the vending machines in the university area
- at the university ticket counters
- at the copying and printing stations of the universities
- at the washing machines and dryers in the student union's dormitories

The most important points in brief

How does the money get onto the card?

You can access the wallet on the chip card.at cash, credit card or debit card top-up machinesYou can recharge your batteries at various locations throughout your university or in the larger facilities of the student services organization.

Can I still pay in cash?

To ensure a quick and smooth checkout process at the restaurant cash registers, every student should top up their chip card in good time at the top-up machines, as a surcharge of 10% is levied for cash payments at the student union's cash registers and many registers now only accept cashless payments.

Cash top-ups at the restaurant cash registers (in whose catchment area top-up machines are available) will also be subject to a service fee of €1.00.

What do I do if my card is damaged or defective?

If you have any questions or problems regarding the chip card, please contact your local student services representative (see below).

In case of a defective or damaged card, please contact your university first . They will issue you a new card. Afterwards, you can have the remaining balance refunded to you by the Würzburg Student Union (even after deregistration). However, we absolutely need your old card for this!

Can I have the remaining balance paid out to me?

You can have the remaining balance on your chip card paid out in cash to your contact person at the Würzburg Student Union (even after deregistration). However, we absolutely need your (old) card for this!
